After LS counting process...

EVMs kept back safely at Warehouse near DC Office

Mysuru, June 5 (RK&BCT)- All Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs), VVPAT (Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail) machines, as well as the attached control units and ballot units, have been securely kept back at the EVM Warehouse near the new Deputy Commissioner's Office at Siddarthanagar.

The entire counting process for the Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha seat concluded at 4 pm yesterday and the packing process commenced at 5 pm. Machines and their respective boxes were then loaded onto container-type trucks with locks to be transported to the Warehouse.

One vehicle was dedicated to one Constituency and the machines of Kodagu Constituency (Madikeri and Virajpet) were transported to Kodagu to be stored in the strong rooms set up there, Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer told Star of Mysore this morning.

Each truck, dedicated to a specific Constituency, began its journey from the counting centre at Maharani's College of Commerce and Management in Vinayakanagar (Paduvarahalli), accompanied by one ASI and two Police Constables for security.

The EVMs and VVPATs belonging to Hunsur, Chamaraja, Krishnaraja, Chamundeshwari, Periyapatna and Narasimharaja Constituencies were shifted to the Warehouse. Inside the Warehouse, the EVMs are arranged according to Assembly Constituencies, with ample space provided for all Mysuru Constituencies.

Following the process of shifting and arranging the boxes by Constituencies, Assistant Returning Officers and Tahsildars entered the details electronically, using gadgets supplied by the Election Commission. The entire process was videographed to ensure transparency. After the accounting process concluded, the data was uploaded to the Election Commission servers as per the prescribed format.

The Deputy Commissioner stated that the machines have been stored according to the directives of the Election Commission, awaiting further instructions from the Commission regarding the next steps. The shifting process was supervised by Vijayanagar ACP Gajendra Prasad and Jayalakshmipuram Inspector Vinay.

Upon placing the machines as per norms, the Warehouse rooms were sealed and CCTV cameras inside and outside were activated. Security of the Warehouse is maintained by Narasimharaja Inspector Mahadevaswamy and his staff.

The Warehouse is under the direct control of the District Electoral Officer or the Deputy Commissioner, secured with a double lock and guarded round the clock by Policemen or security guards, with continuous CCTV surveillance. During non-election periods, EVMs cannot be moved out of the warehouse without specific instructions from the Election Commission.

At the counting centre, the removal of barricades, tents, and other associated paraphernalia is underway, with personnel from the Mysuru City Corporation cleaning the premises to ensure resumption of classes tomorrow.

Yaduveer marks royal family's political resurgence in Mysuru

Mysuru, June 5 (MTY&BCT)- The victory of Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar as the BJP's candidate for Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency marks the resurgence of the erstwhile royal family of Mysore in the political arena after a hiatus of two decades.

Notably, the voters have embraced Yaduveer, who has followed his father's footsteps, as their representative in the Parliament.

Following the electoral defeat of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, a four-time MP, in the 2004 Lok Sabha elections from Mysore Constituency, the presence of the royal family gradually waned in the political landscape. Srikantadatta Wadiyar had represented the Constituency in 1984, 1989, 1996, and 1999. He also experienced electoral losses in different years.

Srikantadatta Wadiyar made his political debut as a Congress candidate in the 1984 Lok Sabha elections, held in the aftermath of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's assassination and emerged victorious. He retained his seat in LS as a Congress candidate in 1989 polls. However, he switched allegiance to BJP for the 1991 Lok Sabha elections, only to lose to Congress candidate Chandraprabha Urs.

Modi to take oath as PM for third time on June 8

New Delhi, June 5 (Agencies)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi is set to make history by taking oath for a third term on Saturday, June 8, evening at Rashtrapati Bhavan. In doing so, he will become the first and only three-term leader of the country since Congress stalwart and India's first PM, Jawaharlal Nehru.

Reports said, PM Modi has arrived at Rashtrapati Bhavan to meet President Droupadi Murmu and formally resign from his top post. Following this, he will stake claim to form the Government. Reports suggest that the new Cabinet of Union Ministers will also take oath on June 8.

NDA secured a simple majority, with 293 out of the 543 seats. Of these, the BJP alone won 240 seats, while its NDA partners clinched the remaining 53 seats. The Opposition I.N.D.I.A managed to secure 234 seats, falling short of the 272-seat mark required to form the Government.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

CREATE YOUR FLOW: Happiness is a state of mind and it is within each one's will to be happy or not. Happiness is an offshoot of contentment with one's lot. But verily no human is happy all the time despite having abundant wealth and a family to share it with.

The mind seeks and dwells on the absence of something rather than rejoicing in the presence of many things. It is human tendency to let the lack of something assume a space disproportionate to that of the things available in plenty. The mind aches to feel sad, dwelling on the absence, resulting in negativity. Suppose you are offered a bouquet of lovely multi-coloured flowers but see your favourite lily missing. Do you feel unhappy and continue to harp on this?

The flowers are unable to emote, but what if it were a group of persons having come to wish you on your birthday and one person whom you consider important is missing? Won't your expression of disappointment affect the ones who have come to wish you? Will it not dampen the atmosphere all around? The moment is spoilt, never to be retrieved.

The prudent way is to accept what is presented to you, be content with what is present in the present, and simply flow along with the current of the river like life. The more one resists the circumstance with dissatisfaction, the adverse impact turns more forceful. What is beyond one's control is best borne with humility and patience.

The 17th century iconic poet John Milton's words upon turning blind, "...who best bear His mild yoke, they serve Him best"...are moving and teach us not to fret and fume when things try to crush us by not going our way. Milton's attitude was one of immense faith in the Almighty despite the blow that he suffered in the form of blindness in his mid life, and it resembles the practice of accepting life's foibles as karmic reactions to one's past deeds known or unknown to us. As such although life experiences are not offered a la carte, life is also a tide churned out of present moments.

It is up to us to shape these moments and direct the flow towards influencing the state of our mind and quality of life. — Sandhya Vasudev in Deccan Herald

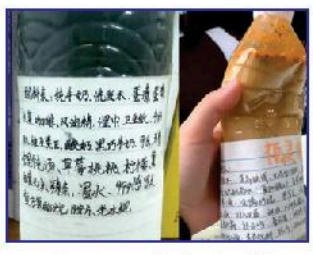
Blind dating cafe sparks controversy

Ho Chi Minh City: A so-called blind dating cafe in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, has come under fire for installing a one-way window that allows men to see the girls they are talking to, but not vice-versa.

On June 1st, a blind dating cafe in Ho Chi Minh's District 1 went viral for a controversial reason. According to multiple reports, Mina Cafe features two different rooms for men and women, separated by a glass wall. The controversy lies in the fact that the wall is advertised as a mirror when in reality it is only a mirror from the women's side. The men's room is dark and they can clearly see the person on the other side. Basically, the blind date part is only valid for the women, as the men can freely admire their potential partners like items on display.

Confronted about the controversial practices, the cafe owner, a woman named Lina, said that they had "created this model to give men the right to proactively pair up. It's up to women to agree or not."

'Stink-raising water' craze on the rise in China



Beijing: Multiple incidents involving bottles of foul-smelling water created by young school students using online recipes has been reported from China. Apparently, they were related to a strange craze where students add all sorts of disgusting ingredients to a plastic bottle of water and let the mix ferment to create the stinkiest concoction possible.

They write the recipe on the bottle and if stinky enough, share it online so that other can take the experiment even further. It has been dubbed the "stink-raising water" craze and education authorities are scrambling to prevent it from becoming even more popular, as experts believe it puts public health at risk.

Upset over CET result, students, parents stage protest in front of KEA Office

Bengaluru, June 5- Deeply upset over the CET (Common Entrance Test) - 2024 results announced by the Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA), students and parents who were badly affected by the rankings, staged a demonstration in front of the KEA Office in Malleswaram here on Monday.

Contending that CET results had a number of flaws, the protesters argued that a majority of students, who had performed well, were not happy with the results. Maintaining that the blunders committed by KEA had put the students to a lot of hardship, they wanted KEA to correct the results and render justice.

Noting that students who had secured more than 95 percent marks in PUC had a low ranking, they said that they suspect something may have gone seriously wrong and urged the KEA to take a re-look at the results.

Medical examination for differently abled students

Meanwhile, the medical examination for differently abled CET students, who are seeking admission to various Under-Graduate professional courses under PwD quota (Persons with Disabilities) will be held from June 10 to 12 at the KEA Office in Malleswaram here.

VOICE OF THE READER

Why this lack of civic sense among people?

Sir,

I rightly agree with the reader's view that only government shouldn't be blamed for garbage dumping on roadsides ("Is government alone to blame for garbage crisis?" SOM dated May 25).

I am a resident of Bank Employees Colony, Bogadi. Here too I find bags of garbage being strewn on either side of the road at the entrance of the Colony.

Aren't the people ashamed to throw the filth of their homes in the public place although the Bogadi Town Panchayat garbage van is regularly coming to collect garbage every alternate day ?

This is not the case only in our Colony. This is seen in most of the areas. Educated, cultured people doing this shameful act is indeed shocking.

Hope some basic civic sense is instilled in their minds and they mend their ways.

Merely blaming the government for everything is senseless.

"This shows that the people have placed immense faith in me, and I will not fail them. The main reason for my securing such significant support is the work done by Prime Minister Narendra Modi over the last 10 years. Additionally, the invaluable contributions of the Mysore Maharajas to the entire region have benefited me," he added.

A good news: Pramoda Devi

"Yaduveer's victory is good news on the auspicious day of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar's birthday. We will advise him to prioritise the development of society and the welfare of all," said his mother, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar.

She emphasised that in the coming days, everyone's cooperation and advice will be crucial to serving the people effectively. Yaduveer is the second MP from the Wadiyar family after Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar. "Due to a long gap of many years, it was a little difficult initially for me to participate in this second innings, although I actively took part in politics during the tenure of my husband," Pramoda Devi noted.

"I will give suggestions to Yaduveer as I have always done. Society is important. I will advise on which development issues should be given priority. Criticism is natural, and both positive and negative comments should be welcomed, with mistakes being corrected," she added.

Reflecting on Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar's tenure, she noted that although he was a four-time MP, he never served as a Minister at the Centre.

When asked if her son might take on such a role, she reiterated, "Let him become a Minister by his own efforts and persona. It all depends on his performance as an MP. This is the first step. I will only advise him to formulate people-friendly policies and, at the same time, serve to benefit society," she said.

'Disputes are personal'

Commenting on the disputes with the Government regarding royal family assets and properties, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar said that the cases are personal in nature and not connected to the Parliamentary elections. "These disputes have existed since the beginning with Governments, irrespective of which party is ruling. We are facing them as they come," she stated.

"We have provided space atop Chamundi Hill to supply water to the residents. However, instead of respecting the established norms, some people have completely dismissed us, which is not right. The Government must seek our opinion," she added.

"As it is their State, the Government is responsible for their actions," she said.

Yaduveer a good candidate so victory was natural: GTD

Mysuru, June 5 (MK,SBD&BCT)- Thanking the voters and JD(S)-BJP workers and leaders for Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar's victory, JD(S) Core Committee Chairman and Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) praised Yaduveer for his humble campaign. "He is a gentleman and he has earned the love of the people," GTD said.

"As soon as Yaduveer's candidature was announced, opponents launched a malicious campaign, framing the Mysuru-Kodagu seat as a battle between royalty and a commoner. Yaduveer clarified many times that he is a commoner and that royalty rule is a thing of the past, he pledged to solve problems at the grassroots level rather than staying within the confines of the Palace. Yet, the campaign against him only intensified. However, the people of the Constituency have shown their love for Yaduveer, recognising his simplicity and amiable nature," GTD remarked.

"Despite losing seats in Uttar Pradesh and Maharashtra, which are considered BJP strongholds, Narendra Modi will become the Prime Minister again as the NDA has secured more votes than the I.N.D.I.A bloc. Congress is also attempting to attract NDA partners through nefarious and unparliamentary means. In Karnataka, people have shown that the so-called 'Five Guarantees' had little effect on voters. Rather than fulfilling the 'Guarantees' it promised, the Congress claimed in newspaper advertisements that they had done so, while the people knew that the Congress was lying," he noted.

Srivatsa happy about victory

Mysuru, June 5 (MK,SBD&BCT)- Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa expressed his delight over the victory. "The scion of the erstwhile Mysore royal family, Yaduveer Wadiyar, has earned the honour and love of the people, securing a significant lead in votes within my Krishnaraja Assembly segment. By supporting PM Narendra Modi, the voters have strengthened his leadership. The alliance with JD(S) in the State has yielded commendable results," he noted.

T.S. Srivatsa

Srivatsa highlighted the dedication of the BJP activists who tirelessly canvassed door-to-door to support their candidate. "This victory truly belongs to the people. We are grateful to the voters and remain committed to serving them," he added.

He emphasised the voters' faith in Modi's vision of development. "The lack of joy on Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's face is evident due to poor performance and Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar's brother's loss adds to this sentiment," Srivatsa remarked.

Yes, Prime Minister Narendra Modi

The game is over. BJP won the game but...

Bharat Mata Ki Jai. We the people of India, that is Bharat, have spoken. No single political party has got 272 seats, that magical number, out of 543 seats when the result was announced yesterday, 4th June 2024.

In a country with multiple political parties, only two parties have pan-India presence — Congress and BJP. Not confident of facing the electoral battle alone, both the parties chose their own Coalition Partners of like-minded regional parties which gave birth to two National Coalitions. One of BJP known as NDA (National Democratic Alliance) and the other of Congress known as I.N.D.I.A (Indian National Developmental Inclusive Alliance).

Now the result is before we the people of India but the mandate is highly fractured going by the seats won. Congress by itself got 99 seats and BJP got 240 seats. However, with the support of the Coalition Partners, BJP (NDA) got 293 seats and the Congress (I.N.D.I.A) got 234 seats.

The real game begins now. Both NDA and I.N.D.I.A vehemently staking its right to form the government, but advantage BJP going by the numbers. It has already declared its decision to crown Narendra Modi as the Prime Minister for the third time in succession that had happened only once with the first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru.

However, looking back at Modi's political journey to the Prime Minister's Office one gets the feeling that it has not been an easy journey. Specially the 2024 Parliamentary election has been the most difficult journey like the one Jesus Christ made Via Dolorosa, carrying the heavy burden of the Cross in the old city of Jerusalem. In this election, Modi seemed to be carrying the Cross for the sake of finding salvation to this long suffering ancient land of ours for which he has been working since 2014.

In the past we have seen 'horse trading' and 'resort politics' with elected representatives turning, what Y.B. Chavan, former Defence Minister, famously said, 'Aaya Rams and Gaya Rams.'

An attempt at this kind of unethical politics, foul and sinister, was made according to some TV Channels, when I.N.D.I. Alliance led by Congress sent emissaries to meet NDA Coalition Partners — Nitish Kumar of JD(U) and N. Chandrababu Naidu of TDP. However, both of these NDA partners, with whose support alone a stable government could be formed, stood by their pre-poll commitment paving way for NDA to form the government with Modi as PM. But knowing the past political game these two have played while forming coalition governments at the Centre, it can be assumed they are still playable and can be lured to walk out of NDA coalition. We must recall 1996, 1989 and 2004.

So, Yes, Prime Minister Modi, you are on a sticky wicket. One is reminded of the popular British TV serial, a satirical sitcom (situation comedy) where it makes you laugh and laugh, as a comedy. But nowhere in India it is neither a satire nor a comedy but a political battle for Modi to become a hat-trick Prime Minister and for the country a blessing for a seamless, sustained development. After all, it was Modi who put in place this model in 2014. At stake are our country's defence, internal security, total integration of Jammu and Kashmir, discarding the despicable colonial laws, wiping out the stigma and vestiges of a 1,000-year foreign rule by reclaiming our heritage, places of worship and bringing in new laws — CAA, UCC, One Nation, One Election etc. Therefore, this third term Modi somehow has to finish the unfinished job of Atal Bihari Vajpayee to make India shine!

Be that as it may, the first lesson I learnt, as a journalist and a senior citizen of this 76-year-old Democracy, is not to trust astrology and exit poll to forecast the election results. I think both are bunk because they are based on insufficient and wrong data.

I had mentioned in this column of 15th May 2024 that Modi was almost at the threshold of entering the Prime Minister's Office for the third time after the 2024 Parliamentary Election. I hope, in spite of the staggering election result and challenges from I.N.D.I Alliance, Modi will cross the golden threshold and enter the Prime Minister's Office.

As I reflect on the present election scenario and smell the scent of voters' preference to elect their representatives, I would like the new incumbent in the Prime Minister's Office to ponder over the wisdom of American law-makers, who amended the Constitution on Feb. 27, 1951 and restricted the term of Presidency to just two terms for an individual. Now no one individual can hold the Office of American President for more than two terms.

Since ours is a Parliamentary form of Democracy, unlike America's Presidential form, we could restrict an individual from holding the Office of Prime Minister for more than two terms. To recall, Pandit Nehru had spoken of this idea when he was chosen as Prime Minister for the third term but the sycophants around him dismissed the great Nehruvian idea to Nehru's hidden inner happiness and secret ambition!

TAIL-PIECE: The only 'astrologer' and exit poll expert, whose prediction proved 100% correct, was Mrs. Sonia Gandhi, the Congress Parliamentary Party Chief. When she was asked on Monday about her expectations from the results to be announced on Tuesday, yesterday, in the context of the exit polls that predicted a great victory to BJP in the Parliamentary election, she said: "We are very hopeful that our results are completely opposite to what the exit polls are showing." Indeed, she has hit the bull's eye.

This time, it is likely that the government formation will be a long-drawn-out war of attrition. Hard bargaining.

Congress lost. But, for BJP it was a pyrrhic victory. I guess, the game is not over. The game has just begun.

MP V. Somanna hopeful of BJP-JD(S) tie in future too

Mysuru, June 5 (BLU&BS)- V. Somanna, the newly elected BJP Lok Sabha MP from Tumkur Constituency has exuded confidence over BJP and JD(S) coalition in the State continuing further in the coming days too.

Somanna

He was speaking to media persons, after enquiring about the health condition of BJP leader Ka. Pu. Siddalingaswamy at a hospital in the city, this morning.

Somanna, who had lost the May 2023 Assembly polls from high-profile Varuna Constituency here against CM Siddaramaiah, along with Chamarajanagar Constituency, registered a victory with a good margin in LS elections.

"BJP and JD(S) worked like two faces of the same coin, which was visible in all the 28 LS Constituencies. While in Tumkur, JD(S) workers worked hard more than BJP, the regional party satrap H.D. Deve Gowda and its State President H.D. Kumaraswamy, addressed four to five rallies, consolidating the chances of my victory. I shall remain ever grateful to them," he said.

Recalling the days after terribly losing the Assembly polls, Somanna said "I was in a political oblivion for 11 months, like a worker without any job. Now, the period of joblessness is over."

Thanking the people for electing him, Somanna said "Never did they treat me as an outsider, without racking their brain over the comments made by others. I had expected to win by a margin of not less than 2 lakh votes, but fell short by over 20,000 votes."

Saying that he will be leaving for New Delhi tomorrow (June 6), Somanna said "The decision over inducting me into cabinet is the prerogative of party high command. I am aware of the present situation, but if given an opportunity, will work more."

Yaduveer marks royal family's political resurgence

Srikantadatta Wadiyar then returned to the Congress fold and successfully contested the 1996 and 1999 elections.

After his electoral setback in 2004 elections, where he finished third behind BJP's C.H. Vijayshankar and JD(S) candidate A.S. Guruswamy, the royal family distanced itself from politics.

Following Srikantadatta Wadiyar's demise in 2013, his wife, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, declined invitations from various political parties and instead focused on legal battles concerning royal properties and assets.

Yaduveer is the grandson of Gayathri Devi, the eldest daughter of the last Maharaja of Mysore Jayachamaraja Wadiyar and sister of Srikantadatta Wadiyar. Pramoda Devi adopted Yaduveer as the royal heir in 2015. Son of Tripura Sundari Devi and Swarup Anand Gopal Raj Urs, Yaduveer Gopal Raj Urs was formally rechristened as Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar. With the election of Yaduveer, who chose to continue his father's legacy, power has returned to the corridor of the hallowed Mysore Palace after a gap of 20 years.

Modi to take oath

Earlier today, PM Modi, who yesterday confirmed that the NDA would stake claim to form the government for a third time, chaired a meeting of the Union Cabinet for the final time. Modi reviewed the LS election results and discussed matters related to the formation of the next Government. It was recommended in the last meeting of Modi 2.0 Cabinet and Council of Ministers to dissolve the current Lok Sabha, whose term ends on June 16.

NDA has scheduled a meeting of its leaders in the national capital at 4 pm today. Concurrently, the I.N.D.I. Alliance has called for its meeting at 6 pm.

Key leaders, including TDP leader Chandrababu Naidu and JD(U) leader Nitish Kumar, who hold significant influence in the formation of NDA Government, too will attend today's meeting.

World Environment Day
celebrated at Suyog Hospital

Mysuru, June 5 (RK&DM)- Planting and watering of saplings marked World Environment Day celebrations at Suyog Hospital in Ramakrishnanagar this morning.

Speaking after inaugurating the event, Star of Mysore and Mysuru Mithra Founder-Editor Dr. K.B. Ganapathy said, it is important for every citizen to take part in environment conservation, at a time when the entire world is facing the disastrous consequences of climate change.

"On World Environment Day, it is the duty of the society to come together for environmental protection. People must not just keep quiet after planting saplings but must take constant care and nurture them until they grow. Several decades ago, when Dr. K.M. Munshi was the Union Minister for Forests and Environment, he had launched 'Vanamahotsava' campaign across the country with an objective of increasing forest cover. The launch of this campaign created nationwide public awareness about the importance of forest and environment conservation," he said.

Pointing out that a programme for increasing green cover at Chamundi foothill was initiated years ago, Dr. Ganapathy said, "We should not leave the responsibility of environment conservation to the Government alone. Every citizen must support the Government and other organisations working for increasing forest cover and conservation."

Noting that seed balls were spread at Chamundi Hill sometime back, he said that following suggestions by a DCF, a major tree planting drive was conducted atop the Hill, which has yielded good results. "I too will throw seed balls around whenever I visit my estate at Kodagu. We should not simply sit saying that it is the job of the Government to protect the forests," he said.

MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda, who presided, stressed on the need to grow plants for environment conservation and prevention of air pollution. Lauding Suyog Hospital for its green cover initiative, he said, "Financial support will be extended to Suyog Hospital which is working with other organisations for growing flower and fruit bearing plants along a stretch of Vishwamanava Double Road that runs through Kuvempunagar."

Former MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, who is involved in promotion of environmental protection through H.V. Rajeev Balaga, was conferred with 'Vruksha Poshaka' award on the occasion.

Dr. K.B. Ganapathy, who was conferred with an Hon. Doctorate by the University of Mysore and MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda were felicitated.

Veteran Littérateur Dr. C.P. Krishnakumar (CPK), former UoM Prasaranga Director K.T. Veerappa, former KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.S. Ramegowda, Suyog Hospital Chairman Dr. S.P. Yoganna, Wellness Expert Dr. B.R. Pai and others were present at the programme.

Students take out Green Rally

The students of St. Joseph's High School, Bannimantap, celebrated World Environment Day today under the slogan "Only One Earth." They took out a rally along the streets nearby, holding placards with a message 'Green and Clean' to create awareness among the citizens.

University Grounds: Yuvaraja students complain over private coaches' menace

Mysuru, June 5 (SPN&BS)- Over 15 students of Yuvaraja's College have written to the authorities of University of Mysore (UoM), complaining against the menace of private sports coaches at the grounds falling under the jurisdiction of Physical Education Department of the Varsity, coming in the way of conducting sports activities of the constituent colleges.

In a letter submitted to UoM Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Director of Physical Education Department and Syndicate Members, the students have explained about how the private coaches are turning a hurdle in hosting regular sports activities of Yuvaraja's and Maharaja's Colleges and Post-Graduate students.

The private coaches are training students of private schools and colleges daily from 6 am to 9 am and 4 pm to 6.30 pm, by charging fees. It is a clear violation of law for private coaches to provide training at the cost of UoM PE Department faculty. But the private coaches are making merry, by providing training in Basketball, Gymnastics, Athletics and Tennis, the students alleged.

If any student question private coaches in this regard, they are abused and assaulted, besides filing a Police complaint against them, by levelling false charges. A written complaint has been already submitted to the Director of UoM PE Department, but no action has been taken. Hence, action should be taken after taking a serious view of the complaint, urged students of Yuvaraja's College Rajashekar, Chandan Patel and Karthik Nayak among others.

Three former CMs make it to LS

HDK

Bommai

Shettar

Mysuru, June 5 (BS)- Three former Chief Ministers from the State have made it to Lok Sabha this time, by emerging victorious in the Parliamentary elections.

H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK), JD(S) State President, who had contested from Mandya as a NDA candidate, following coalition with BJP, registered a thumping victory, followed by BJP nominees Basavaraj Bommai from Haveri and Jagadish Shettar from Belagavi.

Interestingly, HDK and Bommai had been re-elected in May 2023 Assembly polls from Channapatna and Shiggaon Constituencies respectively, while Shettar who had defected to Congress and became an MLC, had resigned as Council Member to return to BJP fold and contest LS polls. Following their elections to LS, by-polls will be conducted to two Assembly seats and one Council seat.

Fifth time unlucky !

Mysuru, June 5 (BLU&BS)- M. Lakshmana, the KPCC Spokesperson, has yet again failed to win electoral battle, holding credence to the saying that 'Luck Counts Above All to Achieve Success', with agility, perseverance and priority counted the least.

Lakshmana, who had contested LS polls as a Congress candidate from Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency lost to Yaduveer Wadiyar of BJP. With this, Lakshmana faced the drubbing in his fifth consecutive elections.

He first contested Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) polls from Yadavagiri ward, but failed to win, followed by polls to Legislative Assembly from Chamaraja Constituency as an independent, Legislative Council from South Graduates Constituency & South Teachers Constituency.

Unfazed by past defeats in the polls, Lakshmana, riding high on Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's charisma, popular Guarantee Schemes of State Government and AHINDA votes, was sure of winning the elections at least this time. But all the predictions went into a toss, with Lakshmana suffering a massive defeat.

Sensing his defeat, with no hint of gaining a lead over his close rival, Lakshmana, accompanied by his supporters, walked out of the counting centre, even before the results were officially declared.

Lakshmana, who had stayed put in the counting centre since the counting of votes began, was collecting the details of votes polled from DC Dr. K.V. Rajendra, also the District Electoral Officer, after the conclusion of every rounds of counting. But, Yaduveer Wadiyar continued to maintain the lead, following which, upset Lakshmana vacated the centre with still two rounds of counting of votes left.

Following the exit of Lakshmana, the agents of Congress party who were at the counting centre also followed the suit.

Shall bow to voters' verdict: M. Lakshmana of Congress

Mysuru, June 5 (RK&BS)- M. Lakshmana, the defeated Congress candidate in Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency has said, "I accept the verdict of the voters with grace and shall bow my head before them."

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Lakshmana said, "Congress party had really worked well on the ground in Mysuru-Kodagu Constituency, but the firm belief that the five Guarantee Schemes implemented by the State Govt. will fetch votes to the party has come a crap". "The party leaders, workers and well-wishers had really worked well to ensure my victory, but the voters belied the expectations, which has indeed disappointed me. But still, I shall accept the verdict of the voters and thank all those who voted for me. Henceforth, I will involve in organisational works of the party," said Lakshmana.

'Cong. debacle in Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha seat temporary'

Mysuru, June 5 (PM&BS)-Mysuru District Rural Congress Committee President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar has said, "While the party candidate Sunil Bose has scored a tremendous victory in the LS elections from Chamarajanagar Constituency, the party has suffered a temporary setback in Mysuru-Kodagu LS Constituency with the defeat of its candidate M. Lakshmana."

In a press release, Dr. Vijaykumar, who has extended his greetings to Bose upon his victory, has attributed the electoral success to the concerted fight of the party workers in the Assembly Constituencies of H.D. Kote, Nanjangud, Varuna and T. Narasipur falling under Chamarajanagar LS segment, where Bose has polled more votes.

The people of the country have handed out a significant and historical mandate against Prime Minister Narendra Modi and shall congratulate the people of the country for this, he added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Meliorism

Pronunciation: MEE-lee-uh-riz-um (Verb)
Meaning: Meliorism refers to the belief that the world tends to improve and that humans can aid its betterment.
Origin: In 1877, British novelist George Eliot believed she had coined meliorist when she wrote, "I don't know that I ever heard anybody use the word 'meliorist' except myself." Her contemporaries credited her with coining both meliorist and meliorism, and one of her letters contains an early documented use of meliorism; however, there is evidence that meliorist had been around decades before she started using it. Whoever coined it did so by drawing on the Latin word melior, meaning "better." It is likely that the English coinages were also influenced by another melior descendant, meliorate, a synonym of ameliorate ("to make better or more tolerable") that was introduced to English in the 1500s.
Example: 'Encanto' has been praised for its cultural accuracy. And many Colombians and Colombian Americans loved the film—but it has also started a debate: What can and can't one movie capture about a country? ... 'I found it charming,' the writer and editor Camilo Garzón said in an interview. 'I found it beautiful. At the same time, it fell short in terms of what representation for representation's sake can be.' He explained, 'In the spirit of American meliorism, the criticism is to make things better, not necessarily because I didn't like it.'" — Laura Zornosa, The New York Times, 11 Mar. 2022

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Fly Off The Handle

Meaning: The expression "Fly off the Handle" is used to indicate that someone has become irrationally angry due to a complete loss of self-control.
Origin: "Fly off the Handle" is an American phrase that alludes to the way that an axe head can fly off its handle if it becomes loose. The expression was first seen in print in 1834, in Thomas C. Haliburton's The Attaché; or, Sam Slick in England: "He flies right off the handle for nothing."
Example: 'Try not to make Sam mad. He has a tendency to fly off the handle at the slightest provocation.'
